Expert Discussants: We will list here expert discussants and guests. These are WUN leaders and experts attending, or those invited from the UN, agencies and stakeholders. Professor Anthony Welch, University of Sydney; Dean Dong Henjin, Zhejiang University; Others will be listed here.

Timing: Chairs, speakers and panellists please keep to time, so that all participants can engage in the discussion, development of consensus and outcomes.

Confirmed: We request confirmation by 30 March for any who are not yet confirmed. See Registration.

Background Papers: A selected set of 5-6 highly relevant and evidence based reference papers will be circulated to provide a platform for discussions and outcomes. If you wish to recommend such a paper for inclusion, please let us know via jhearn@wun.ac.uk, cgliu@wun.ac.uk and send it, or the link, to us as an email attachment by 15 March 2017.

Steering Group: Members of the WUN Partnership Board Steering Group.

Operations Team: Chair – Prof John Hearn; Dr Mike Hasenmueller; A-Prof Grace Liu; Marije Nieuwenhuis. Primary functions: program, speakers, editing, registration, venue, logistics, implementation, follow up.

Note: The capacity is approximately 100 people. All invitees are high level experts. Initial invitations are issued from Sydney and the evolving program is available on the website.

Guideline: Approximately 50 participants from WUN and 50 invited speakers and guests representing government, agencies, media and senior stakeholders. A major part of the program is reserved for discussion, enabling the engagement of all participants.

Outline and status at 22 March 2017:

- Purpose: A review of the current status, opportunities and threats, and future projections 2017-20 of the Sustainable Development Goals: strategies for building and strengthening bridges and engagement for leading international universities.
- Focus: Opportunities for practical actions and outcomes in research, education, mobility, impact. Consideration of strengthened current and new university networks and alliances.
- Framework: Monitoring and assessment of the SDGs 2017-20, taking opportunities for co-operation and mitigating the risks in fragmentation. 3-5 potential research programs for WUN.
- Workshop Format: Four sessions with scene setting speaker(s), 2-3 panellist/commentators, and expert discussion towards specific outcomes.
- Background: Selected reference papers will be circulated in early April that present the current status as far as possible, so that discussions can proceed towards options and solutions.
- Forum: Speakers and panellists are asked for a 200-word abstract of their message, and a 200-word biography, to be received by close Friday 31 March 2017 to be included in the program.
- Attendance: An invitation only meeting of 100 experts (50 WUN, 50 invited guests). We respectfully request that attendees stay for the whole meeting as far as possible.
- Funding (Sponsorship): Costs and management time are significant issues in the planning and agreement of venue and participants. Core organisation and implementation are provided by WUN Secretariat, with guidance from the WUN Partnership Board Steering Group. Further sponsorship is welcome.
- Timing and Deadlines: The final participants list will be confirmed by 31 March for the final program circulated (and on websites) by Friday 14 April.
- Bios and Abstracts (200 words each, a template is provided): send by 31 March 2017 latest to A/Prof Liu, Editor, via gliu@wun.ac.uk (with cc to mnieuwenhuis@wun.ac.uk).
- Participation: the draft program will be circulated and will be available online.
- Program and Preparation: Please make sure that you consult the website, download the program, bios and statements, and selected reference papers after 14 April 2017 when final papers will be posted. In interests of environment and cost, we do not intend to provide printed copies.
- Registration: please follow this link. All participants please register for the workshop and the (optional) dinner by 31 March 2017.
- Forum Dinner: 4th February, at the UN International Hotel. Registration required, see link above.
